Issuers elect new DDV Board of Directors

Frankfurt am Main, Germany, 13 September 2022

At the general meeting of the German Derivatives Association (Deutscher Derivate Verband, DDV) yesterday evening, issuers of structured products elected four representatives to the DDV Board of Directors from among their members:

- Markus Bärenfänger: Head of Customer and Sales Management in the capital markets business with private clients division at DZ BANK AG.
- Peter Bösenberg: Deputy Head of Public Distribution Europe at Société Générale.
- Jan Krüger: Head of the Equity Markets business at LBBW and responsible for trading and risk management for equities and equity derivatives, and product management.
- Christine Romar: Heads the distribution of structured products in Germany and Austria at Citigroup Global Markets Europe AG.

The elected Board Members work for the DDV in an honorary capacity. The DDV Board of Directors is rounded out by Dr Henning Bergmann and Christian Vollmuth as CEOs and Members of the Board of Directors.

Dominik Auricht (UniCredit) leaves the DDV Board of Directors following the new election. The DDV's CEOs, Bergmann and Vollmuth, thank him for his many years of successful work on the Board.
